Malaysia

Truly Asia

Malaysia is an exciting melting pot of races and religions where Malays, Indians, Chinese and many other ethnic groups live together, creating a culturally diverse and naturally beautiful hub.

Multiculturalism has not only made Malaysia a gastronomical paradise, it has also made Malaysia home to hundreds of colourful festivals, creating a tradition of celebration. Malaysians are very warm and friendly.

Geographically, Malaysia is as diverse as its culture. There are two parts to the country: 11 states in the Peninsula of Malaysia and 2 states in the island of Borneo.

With leisure options from rolling mountains to sandy beaches to exciting shopping districts, Malaysia is full of surprises, eclectic cultures and natural wonders.

CONSORTIUM OF GLOBAL UNIVERSITIES

SEGi University & Colleges partners with international universities of great repute to offer a globalised learning experience for our students. Programmes offered by our university partners are regulated by them on a regular basis, thus ensuring the exact same quality of education that students will obtain at their home base.

United Kingdom

University of Central Lancashire

The University of Lancashire is one of the largest universities in the UK which hosts about 25,000 students. This public university, located in Preston, Lancashire, England was founded as the Institution for the Diffusion of Knowledge in 1828 and became a university in 1992. Imbued with a celestial-sounding motto, 'Ex solo ad solem', which translates 'From the Earth to the Sun', the vastness of the university's portfolio includes over 400 undergraduate programmes and 200 postgraduate courses. Hailed for its high student satisfaction in the recent international Student Barometer survey, its impressive reputation as a regional economy powerhouse testifies to over 1,000 students and graduates who have started a business or embarked on self-employment.

University of Greenwich (UOG)

University of Greenwich (UOG) can trace its roots back to 1890, founded as Woolwich Polytechnic and later awarded university status in 1992. The University has a long history in the field of education and has three campuses in south east London and Kent within a progressive learning environment supported by modern and hi-tech facilities.

Today, it has 1,200 programmes including some of the more popular choices of Law, Nursing, Business, and Engineering. The University has been acknowledged by the sector and its peers to be a silver rated provider of higher education according to the 2017 Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF). UOG is also the proud recipient of The Queen's Anniversary Prize for Higher and Further Education 2015, awarded for innovative research and development carried out by Greenwich's Natural Resources Institute within the Faculty of Engineering & Science.

University of Sunderland

University of Sunderland (UOS) has been providing higher education since 1901 and is proud to be an innovative, forward-thinking university with high standards of teaching, research and support. As a research active university, UOS aims to enhance the learning experience of its students as well as the academic standing of the institution as a seat of higher learning and scholarship.

Academic programmes are at the core of the University's commitment to producing well-rounded graduates. The Guardian ranks its Hospitality, Event Management & Tourism as 4th best in the country, while Nursing is ranked 5th best. Other highly-ranked majors in the Guardian league tables are Business, Management & Marketing, Accounting & Finance, Mechanical Engineering and Fashion & Textiles.

Cardiff University

Cardiff University is one of Britain's leading teaching and research universities. Founded by Royal Charter in 1883, the University today combines impressive modern facilities and a dynamic approach to teaching and research with its proud heritage of service and achievement. The University's breadth of expertise in research and research-led teaching encompasses: the humanities; the natural, physical, health, life and social sciences; engineering and technology; preparation for a wide range of professions; and a longstanding commitment to lifelong learning. The University is also home to three major new Research Institutes, offering radical new approaches to neurosciences and mental health, cancer stem cells and sustainable places. Having gained national and international standing, Cardiff University's vision is to be recognised as a world-leading university and to achieve the associated benefits for its students, staff and all other stakeholders.

United States of America

Troy University

Troy University is a comprehensive public university that is located in Troy Alabama, United States. It was founded on February 26, 1887 as Troy State Normal School within the Alabama State University System. It is the flagship university of the Troy University System with its main campus enrolment of 6,998 students and the total enrolment of all Troy University campuses of 19,579. Troy University is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS) to award associate, baccalaureate, master's, education specialist, and doctoral degrees. Today, the University serves the educational needs of students in four Alabama campuses, sixty teaching sites in 17 U.S. States and 11 countries. Troy University's graduates number more than 100,000 alumni representing all 50 states and from numerous foreign countries. Troy University is known as Alabama's International University for its extensive international program in attracting foreign students from around the world.

Australia

University of Southern Queensland (USQ)

University of Southern Queensland (USQ) which was established in 1967 is based in Toowoomba, Queensland. The University is one of Australia's leading providers of education both on campus and through its distance education option. With more than 75 per cent of students studying via distance learning or online mode, USQ is at the cutting edge of flexible delivery of resources and technology. USQ is a fully accredited Australian Government University, with students coming from across Australia and all around the world.
